Stellenbosch and Winelands

Attention wine lovers!

Stellenbosch

The Stellenbosch Winelands, only 20 minutes away from the city of Cape Town, offers a superb scenery, completely different to the landscape of the Cape Peninsula. Numerous grapes are grown in the region such as Chenin Blanc, Shiraz, Pinotage and the Méthode Cap Classique (local champagne).

The town of Stellenbosch is a small but very vibrant town with a very famous university and numerous activities such as wine cellar tours and tastings. You will have the opportunity to purchase wines to bring back home and enjoy the region's wonderful vintages after your visit.

(1h 45 minutes)

Franschhoek

Franschhoek ("the French corner") is an old Huguenot village. With its numerous streets and estates with French names, the town will make you feel completely disoriented, feeling like you are in France in another era. You will be completely enchanted by the town's charm and its very peaceful environment. You will get the chance to taste the region's delicacies, cheeses and its best wines. (2 hours)

Drakenstein Prison

Drakenstein (Victor Verster) is a low-security prison between Paarl and Franschhoek. The prison is famous for being the location where Nelson Mandela spent the last part of his imprisonment for campaigning against apartheid. (10 minutes)

Paarl

The town of Paarl offers a great window into Afrikaner culture and tradition. The district is particularly well known for its Pearl Mountain or "Paarl Rock". This huge granite rock is formed by three rounded outcrops that make up Paarl Mountain and has been compared in majesty to Uluru (formerly known as Ayers Rock) in Australia. You will also be able to visit the town's vineyards where you will taste the region's finest wines. (1 hour)
